

Ian Forcher

Ian Maddox Forcher began his formal dance training at his parent's studio, Forcher's Dance Center, in Irving, Texas.

He attended Summer Intensives at Ballet Austin and American Ballet Theater in Austin, Texas and two Summers at the School of American Ballet in New York City.

Ian joined Momentum Dance Company as an Apprentice and rose the rank of Principal Dancer.

Ian attended Southern Methodist University on scholarship as a Dance Major, where he had the opportunity to perform at the Joyce Theater in New York City at the Jose' Limon Festival.

Schooled in all styles of dance, Ian began teaching at the age of 14. He also choreographed for Momentum Dance Company, where his works were performed throughout the Dallas/Ft Worth Metroplex area.
